

Horseman may miss Amateur cup clash

WYCOMBE Wanderers' leading goalscorer Tony Horseman may miss tomorrow's (Saturday) first round Amateur Cup tie against Hornchurch at Loakes Park. "Bodger" has been suffering recently with a back injury.

The injury was sustained against Tooting before Christmas and aggravated in the Boxing Day draw at Dulwich. Horseman was rested on Saturday but despite winning 4-0 the Blues undoubtedly missed his presence.

While Horseman was missing though, it paved the way for the re-appearance of Graham Mackenzie who certainly made the most of his chance with a brilliant performance in midfield. And if Bodger is unfit tomorrow, Mackenzie may well stay in the side with Mick Hollifield again playing in the striker's role.

Mackenzie, although unlikely to find tomorrow's opponents as easy as Clapton, is still worth a regular first team place for his distribution in midfield. Along with Terry Readon and skipper Larry Pritchard, these three make up a really inventive trio. Now Tony Brothers has left for Hitchin, Mackenzie is the first choice replacement for midfield.

Apart from Horseman, there are no other injury worries, although manager Brian Lee will again have to decide who to play in the full back position — Rob Williams or Paul Birdseye.

COMFORTABLE

On paper, the game looks pretty comfortable for Wycombe, fourth in the Rothmans Isthmian League table. But they were in a similar position this time last season when a small Hertfordshire club named Cheshunt visited Loakes Park.

It looked easy until John

Delaney gifted them a goal and then had to be carried off with a leg injury. Despite throwing everything they had at Cheshunt, the visitors managed to hold on to their advantage to run out 1-0 winners.

Overconfidence is the one thing that could disturb Wycombe tomorrow. After their excellent performances against 'pro' opposition in the F.A. Cup, it is now their turn to be the giants in the final Amateur Cup competition.

Hornchurch manager, Arthur Wenborn, remained in a philosophical mood this week over his trip to Wycombe Wanderers.

It will be a rare experience for Hornchurch to play in front of a gate of 1,500 plus, and in an unfamiliar setting they travel as distinct underdogs. "Let's be realistic," says manager Wenborn, "If we had to be drawn away from home, a team like Wycombe Wanderers is better for us. In fact it is better for the club financially to play Wycombe on their ground."

But if it is possible to detect the slightest hint of defeatism in Wenborn's attitude, the Hornchurch boss is quick to add, "Don't forget we only lost to Sutton United after a hard fought replay in the F.A. Cup and I don't think there would be too many raised eyebrows if Sutton were to beat Wycombe."

Unfortunately Hornchurch have never been renown cup fighters and in previous Amateur Cup rounds, Wenborn has had difficulty in raising the side to meet the occasion. "But I don't think we shall have any problems against Wycombe", he says.

"The lads seem to have taken exception on this occasion. They are mentally prepared for the game and are looking forward to it, which is a great advantage."

The 'Urchins' away form in the Amateur Cup this season compares favourably with their matches at the Stadium. They scored convincing 3-0 and 4-1 wins at Rainham and Ford United while winning by the only goal of the game against Grays and Vauxhall Motors at home.

Manager Wenborn's big injury worry is his 20 year old talented midfielder player, Earl Jacocine, who damaged an ankle in last Saturday's league fixture at Herne Bay. Despite regular treatment at the club over the past week, Jacocine has responded slowly and it is on the cards he will miss the tie. His injury comes as a minor catastrophe to Hornchurch, who rely a great deal on Jacocine's midfield flair.

NOONAN IS TOP SCORER

TOP goalscorer this season for Hornchurch is Alan Noonan, who joined the club from Ilford this term. Here's a run down on the Hornchurch squad.

GEOFF POWELL: Regular first team goalkeeper, came from local junior soccer and stepped into the first team spot when former 'keeper Tony Wiseman left for Bishop's Stortford.

MICK FRUEN: Slightly built, but effective full back. Joined during manager Arthur Wenborn's team rebuilding operation and has commanded a regular first team spot ever since.

MICK HALL: Partners Fruen on left back and also joined the club in Autumn '72 from Tooting. A regular first team man.

COLIN EMSDEN: Industrious midfielder man with a flair for attack. Left Leyton in the Athenian League Division Two to join Hornchurch.

KEN DEARMAN: Resolute defender. Strong in the tackle and an effective marker. Joined with Emsden from Leyton.

KEN DOUGHTY: Completes the back four. Plays at centre back and is the mainstay of the Hornchurch defence in the air. Turned down a possible move to Isthmian neighbours Ilford two months ago but is now back in regular first team action. From East Ham.

PETER TAYLOR: Midfield man with deceptive qualities. Quilt the game a year ago but on Wenborn's arrival at the club, was persuaded to rejoin and is now a key member of the team.

JOHN SCRIVENER: Tall, accurate striker. Signed from Ford United with manager Wenborn as their top scorer and became Hornchurch's top marksman last term.

ALF HALE: Provides Noonan and Scrivener with invaluable support up front. Came from Ilford at the start of the season.

EDDIE WARREN: Relentless midfield ball winner but has failed to find his top form this term after signing
